Everyone needs to know what to do if a young person asks for help. Our responsibility as a Safe Place site is to make sure any youth who needs help feels _____ and to _____ their decision to get help. Each young person is unique and their problems can vary greatly.

What you should do if a young person requests help:

- Get a general idea of what is wrong. Ask the youth if they came to your campus because it is a "Safe Place". If there is a clear indication of serious injury, physical trauma or need for urgent medical attention, or the youth indicates that they are in danger or is the victim of a crime then notify your _____ immediately. In the event that an officer is unavailable, call 911.
- Do not go into detail about the problem. Be supportive and tell the youth that you will contact the _____.
- For administrative reasons, obtain the youth's _____, _____, _____, _____ and if possible home address.
- Reassure the youth, make them feel comfortable and if possible offer them something to drink. Show them where you want them to wait. This location should be out of the way of normal activity but allow for easy monitoring. Remember that they are here of their own free will and you may not _____ or _____ them from leaving.
- Call Safe Place Agency at 602-841-5799. Tell them that you are calling from a Safe Place site and provide the following information:

1. Identify _____, the _____ that you are calling from, your exact _____ and a _____ where you can be reached.
2. Give the youth's name, age, date of birth and gender.
3. Allow the _____ member to speak with the youth.

A Safe Place staff will call you back shortly. Provide the young person with the name of the Safe Place responder that will come to your college and let them know that the person will arrive soon.

Document the following while you are waiting for the Safe Place responder to arrive.

- Your _____ and _____ (your position title, location, etc.)
- The _____ name, age, date of birth, gender and home address, if available.
- Indicate the _____ that the youth arrived, the person they initially contacted if someone other than yourself and the time that you contacted the Safe Place agency.

Check on the youth regularly and be _____, without prying into the specifics of their situation.

When the Safe Place staff member arrives, ask for _____. Do not allow the person to contact the youth until identity is confirmed. If in doubt, contact a _____ immediately and call the _____ and inform them that a different person is here on their behalf.

After the Safe Place responder has been verified allow them to _____ the youth and _____ them from the site.

Reminder

Remember that these procedures may vary from the _____ standard procedures. For more information or clarification on your department procedures, contact your campus _____ department.
